PBA Country Club Lanes Central/Midwest Open Presented By 900 Global

In the 2018 Country Club Lane Open presented by 900 Global, there were a total of 64 entries competing for the $2,000 top prize. The 2002-2003 Harry Golden Rookie of the Year Brad Angelo would start with a 254-game. However, scores started to drop throughout the qualifying portion of the tournament. Frank Snodgrass would have a 256 in game #2. The scores were dropping on the PBA. It would only take a score of 27 under by Devon Miller who would shoot a 246-game to bowl in the cut. The top four would receive two byes for being the top four qualifiers while fifth through eighth would receive a one round bye. Barry Parker would score a 31 under to be the highest PBA50 non-casher and would receive $200 for his effort. Devon Miller would have to go the entire distance to get to the championship match. There was a tie for fourth and fifth between Aaron Beaver and Chris Colella for the last spot for the two round byes. Chris would defeat Aaron Beaver 175 to 157. Chris would receive the two round bye. In the first round of match play, there were a couple of local bowlers trying to advance. However, they had to face each other. TJ Smith would take down Mike Schlabach. Another local bowler would be eliminated in the first round of match play. Chris Hartung of Goshen, Indiana, would be eliminated by Fidel Marchena. Another name that came from the bottom was Jason Lundquist who qualified fourteenth and who worked his way to get to the semi-finals. He would get beat by Andrew Klingler who shot a 209 while Jason could only muster up a 188-game. In the other semi-finals, Devon Miller would win his match against Chris Colella 219 to 213. Devon Miller had his PBA card since March of 2019. He would start the championship match with a front five strikes in a row while Andrew Klingler was struggling and was not able to keep up with Devon. It was Miller's first career PBA regional title as he defeated Klingler with a score of 224 to 182.
