2026 Tournament of Champions

TOURNAMENT RECAP

Alex Horton won his first career PBA Tour Title and Major at the 2026 PBA Tournament of Champions. Alex would become the third African-American to win a major title on the PBA Tour. Horton would defeat tournament leader Zach Wilkins 224 to 176. Wilkins was looking to win back to back weeks. He would fall a little bit short to win his first major and singles title.

“This is the pinnacle of bowling right here,” Horton said. “It doesn't get any better than this. To win a PBA Tour title is one thing. To win a major is another thing, and to win the Tournament of Champions... not only that, but for my first title, it's truly amazing.”

Jason Belmonte was trying to become the first player to win five Tournament of Champions titles. Belmonte would start off strong as he beat Brandon Bonta 247 to 213. In the second match Belmonte would struggle as he opened the match with three opens in the first five frames. Andrew Anderson would jump at that opportunity and not give Belmonte another chance to come back. Belmonte would shoot 163 to Anderson's 236. In the semi final game it was a closer match as Alex Horton would defeat Andrew Anderson

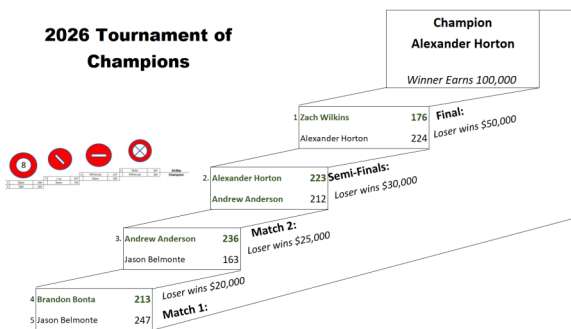

223 to 212. In the championship match Alex Horton started off strong with a four bagger and Zach Wilkins could not get anything going.

“I knew Alex was special when I watched compete at literally 12 years old. He wasn't afraid to get up there and let the ball go,” PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III said.

At this year's Tournament of Champions PBA Hall of Famer Chris Barnes announced his retirement from competing on the regular PBA Tour. It took a score of +332 by Mika Koivuniemi to get the last cash spot. Ethan Flore would be the cut score to make the match play finals. Brandon Bonta would be the qualifying leader with a score of +660. Some of the past champions that made the match play were EJ Tackett and Marshall Kent. The defending champion Jesper Svennson withdrew from qualifying. There were only two perfect games shot Chris Via and Jason Sterner. EJ Tackett was trying to become the second player in PBA history by completing the Triple Crown twice but Tackett would come up a little bit short as he finished 8th.
