On November 30th 2019, Pro Bowl West would host the Vick Sockrider Memorial Baker Doubles 40 and Under. Each team would consist of a bowler that was 40 years and another bowler that was younger than 40. If teams wanted to have both bowlers over the age of 40, that was also allowed. Each team would bowl ten baker games, then the top twelve teams would advance to the match play portion of the tournament. Then the top 4 teams would get a one round bye, in the first round of match play. There was a total of 55 teams entered in this years tournament. Two thousand dollars was added to the prize fund. The tournament would raise a thousand dollars for Vick Sockrider Scholarship fund. Logo Infusion would add a two hundred dollar bonus for any team that had matching shirts with Logo Infusion jerseys. Global 900 and 3G-shoes would donate balls to raffle off in the tournament. It would take a 227 average to advance to match play, the team of Schmitt and Campos would be the number to advance. The team of Jene Perez and Mykel Holliman were tournament leaders with a score of +422. Jason Flaugh and Chris Toyias would be the last to receive the first round bye with a score of +348. Some Pro Bowlers were participating, Eugene McCune, E.J. Tackett, and the 2019 Rookie of the Year Mykel Holliman. The final four teams survived to the title match, with Jason Flaugh and Chris Toyias winning the tournament. They would collect $900 for their efforts.
