

Page Takes the First Round Lead

Rhino Page took the first round lead averaging 252 for the block. Liz Johnson was in second with a score of +397. Mike Scroggins was in third with a score of +376,. Tom Smallwood was in fourth with a score of +355. Former Player of the Year, Sean Rash took the fifth spot with a score of +350. The scores were awfully high as PBA Hall of Famer , Parker Bohn III scored 323 over. The left handed side of the lane was decent. Jason Belmonte had a hard time keeping up with the scoring pace, but he is still in the top 24. Ten time major title winner Pete Weber had some struggles of his own. It is taking an average of 231.75 to make the top 24. The cash number is at +242. PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III had a 279 game in game #7, to vault him inside the top 10. Walter Ray Williams Jr. is looking for his TOC title and he got off to a great start with a score of +262. Several past champions of the Tournament of Champions are doing extremely well. The bowler's still have 2 more rounds to get inside the top 24 tonight and tomorrow morning

Leader Board	Hall of Fame Leader Board	Past Champion Leader Board
1. Rhino Page +416	1.Parker Bohn III +323	1.Mika Koivuniemi +347
2. Liz Johnson +397	2.W.R.Williams Jr. +262	2.Patrick Allen +343
3. Mike Scroggins +376	3.Pete Weber +171	3.Jason Belmonte +262
4. Tom Smallwood +355	4. Norm Duke +143	4. Tommy Jones +245
5. Sean Rash +350	5. Johnny Petraglia +24	5. Michael Haugen Jr. +220

Leader Number +416
Cut Number +254
Cash Number +242

