

2015 Hall of Fame

Josh Hyde's Bowling Newsletter

extra

2015 PBA Hall of Fame

At the 2015 PBA Hall of Fame Induction Mike J. Lane side was the MC for the ceremony Nelson Burton Jr. was also introducing the Hall of Fame class.

The first one to be inducted was Barb Wilt she was the PBA membership coordinator for forty four years. Dave Schroder introduced Barb into the PBA and he said that she was a thrill to work with. She worked for the PBA for forty four years they had a tribute video and bowlers like Pete Weber, Walter Ray Williams and Jason Belmonte said how she was a great friend to work with as the PBA membership coordinator. In her speech she had thanked her family and how great it was to work for the PBA. She will be greatly missed. She had quit on a couple of different occasions and as a joke she told the Luby Publishing that she would not be coming back.

Bob Glass was next in line. A great bowler inducted him into the PBA Hall of Fame, Bryan Goble. Bryan had some great things to say about Bob, Goble bowled for Glass at Kansas University. Glass had contributed his wife to bowling while she knew he had said that she taught him the fundamentals of bowling and thanked her for that. He had a great career on the PBA50 Tour he almost had a 50 percent at making the top five on the PBA50 Tour. With winning nine times and capturing two majors.

When Tom Clark inducted Chris Peters, Tom said that Chris had worked with MicroSoft Word and how that was a great program at the time. When Peter was working on buying the PBA Tom worked for USA Today and Tom told the paper that this needed to be a big story. Chris Peters saved the PBA when him and Rob Glascer and Mike Slade bought the PBA. Chris said "Thank you." and told the story about how he told his wife that everybody in the bowling industry was nice. Chris was overwhelmed.

The 2015 PBA Hall of Fame class: Barb Wilt, Bob Glass, and Chris Peters.