ToC Report 2015

Belmonte Becomes the 2nd Player to successfully defend his TOC Title

Jason Belmonte once again made his career by defeating Rhino Page in the Title Match 232-214. There was another history making moment when Sean Rash became the 1st player to have 2 perfect games on television. The scores were quite high as it took a 251 average to win a game. Ryan Ciminelli was the opponent that Rash shot his 300 against. Rash had a good look, however his luck ran out when facing his biggest rival of Jason Belmonte, who started off slow but ended with 8 of 9 strikes. Rash had a 2-8-10 split in the late part of the game that ended his shot at the title. The left handers could not carry the 7 pin today in the Step Ladder Finals, they were however hitting the pocket very well today. Norton, a left-hander was one of the 3 that really struggled to carry today, causing him to lose out in the first round. It was another history making Tournament of Champions.
