Jason Belmonte earned his fifth Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year award. In 2019, he became the third bowler to win the Tournament of Champions three times. Additionally he won the 2019 PBA World Championship. He surpassed Pete Weber and Earl Anthony with eleven Major titles. He added two other titles at the Japan Cup and the World Series of Bowling X Chameleon Championship. He almost won the PBA Players Championship, but had a 7-10 split in the tenth frame. He ended the season with 22 PBA career titles including 11 Major titles.

Mykel Holliman won the 2019 Harry Golden Rookie of the Year award. His highest finish was at the 2019 USBC Masters where he came in second to Jakob Buttruff. He made two match play appearances, he cashed four times. He almost made the PBA Playoffs with this second place finish at the Masters. He needed to win it to qualify for the event.

Chuck Gardner won the 2019 Tony Reys Service Award. Gardner is the Brunswick Ball rep for the PBA and PBA50 Tours. He has also started a foundation called Bowl 4 Life. Bowl 4 life raises money for the youth bowling scholarship in 2019. Bowl 4 Life paid out a total of 20,000 in scholarships for their first bowling tournament. They also gave Mykel Holliman $2,500 for winning the 2019 Harry Golden Rookie of the Year award.

Martin Larson earned his second Steve Nagy Sportsmanship award despite having a car accident in the mid summer. He had never won PBA Tour. He is one of the nicest guys on and off the lanes.

Tommy Jones was the only one to be selected to go into the PBA Hall of Fame for 2020. Tommy Jones won a total of 19 PBA titles along with 2 majors. He won the 2006 US Open and the 2007 Tournament of champions. He was the second player to receive both Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year Honors. He was voted in the top 50 in the all time PBA Greatest Bowlers and he was ranked 30. It only took Jones two and half years to win 10 PBA titles to be eligible for PBA Hall Of Fame. He was a multy player on Team USA. He will be recognized at the PBA Hall of Fame ceremony.
