New Hui Fen wins 2025 Women's US Open

New Hui Fen won her second major by defeating Jordan Snodgrass 290 to 188 in the championship match of the Women's US Open. New had a record breaking four game average when she averaged 256.5 in route of winning her fifth PWBA title.

"I never thought that at age 33 I would be eligible for the hall of fame," New said. "When I think of the hall of fame, I think of Leanne Hulsenberg and Liz Johnson."

New opened up with a 246 game in the opening match against Maryssa Carey of Hobart, Indiana. In the second match New would take on Crystal Elliot where she would prevail 228 to 183. In the semi-final match New would open up with a six bagger. Never looking back with a 262 game. Lauren Russo could never catch up with a New as she would only throw a 174.

2025 PBA Tour Finals

Andrew Anderson defeated EJ Tackett two games to zero in 2025 PBA Tour Finals. Both players qualified first in their groups. Andrew Anderson had a 279 game in his qualifying game to take the lead. EJ Tackett opened up with a 266 game taking up a commanding lead. In the Championship match EJ Tackett started off with a four bagger and then struggled by the end of the game 1. This gave Anderson a chance to take a lead with a one point lead. Anderson took advantage and did not look back to give Anderson a one nothing lead.

The second game saw EJ Tackett struggling with ball reaction. This year the PBA Tour finals featured a dual pattern tournament with the Monacelli on the right and the Petraglia on the left. Anderson beat the two greatest bowlers Jason Belmonte and EJ Tackett in route for sixth PBA Tour title.

"To win two titles this year, that solidified that I was back," Anderson said.

Spare Column: Daugherty wins Senior USBC Masters

Tom Daugherty winner of the 2025 USBC Senior Masters

Tom Daugherty won his first PBA50 title by defeating PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III 233 to 185. This was the first time that the first and second seed qualifiers bowled for the championship game in the USBC Senior Masters.

The USBC Super Senior winner James Campbell had his chance at making history by winning both the USBC Senior Masters and the USBC Super Senior Classic. However he would run into Mika Koivuniemi. Campbell would lose to Mika 249 to 204 in the first match of the Senior Masters. In the second match Mika would go up against Tony Franklin and beat him by 268 to 249 in the highest scoring match. When bowling fans taught that Mika would climb the ladder. Koivuniemi would start lose his line to the pocket. Parker Bohn III took advantage of it was able to overtake Mika 247 to 232. The match was very interesting towards the end of the match.

In the qualifying portion of the 2025 USBC Senior Masters PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III would beat his own record. The first day of qualifying he would average 257 in his first five games of the tournament. In the next round he would average 250.8 and beat the ten game scoring record. The third round Parker would not score as high but still maintained a lead and out averaged nearest competitor by 5 pins. There was a tie for the last match play spot between Darryl Bower and Jodey Rees would win 1 game roll off to advance the double elimination bracket. Jon Rakoski was the defending champion of the tournament. He was the last qualifier for the match play portion of the tournament.

Rerack from the past: Showboat Invitational

In the early days of the PBA they had tournaments that were a major format. The Showboat Invitational was not considered a major tournament. The bowlers bowled sixty-six games to get to the championship round. This tournament did not have a tournament qualifying round. All the bowlers who entered could bowl the main tournament. This tournament was held at the Showboat hotel & Bowling Center in Las Vegas. The Showboat bowling center had a 106 lanes this was the biggest bowling center in the United States. There were four PBA Hall of Famers that won the Showboat Invitational multiple times they were Mark Roth, Mike Aulby, Walter Ray Williams, Jr and Parker Bohn III. All four of these bowlers ended up in the PBA Hall of Fame and had multiple Player of the Year honors.
