Midwest Scratch Bowling Series: Pro Bowl West

There were 78 entries vying for the $1,300 top prize. Mike Svilar got things rolling by shooting a perfect 10 in the first game of qualifying. In the second game, Lonnie Jones bowled a 249 to take the pot. In the third game, Aaron Phillips shot a 267. In the fourth game, Josh Chaney rolled a 268. The fifth game saw E.J. Tackett shoot a 268. Midwest Scratch Bowling Series point leader J.R. Raymond took game 6. E.J. Tackett led the qualifying with a score of +182. It would take a score of +29 by Josh West. Local bowler Terry Rohrer was low to cash with a score of +9. Emilio Mora, Sr., was the high senior with a score of -2, while Kayla Ogden was the high female with a score of -76.

In the first round of Match Play, E.J. Tackett had a 103 pin lead going into the last game. He would end up winning the match to advance to the next round. Bill Crane would end up beating Mike Svilar 361-344. J.R. Raymond would be defeated in the first round of Match Play by Josh West 399-341. Jeff Grego defeated Charles Easton 381-335. Grego had a significant lead going into the second game. Steve Novak had the high game of the round, defeating Carleton Chambers 438-416.

In the second round of Match Play, Tackett again had the high score of the match, coming from behind to defeat Jeff Grego. Bill Crane III, Jerry Kessler, and Steve Novak were the other winners. Novak barely edged out Ben Pallardy 393-390 to win the final match.

In the stepladder, Crane defeated Kessler in a nail-biter, 176-172, the closest match of the stepladder. Crane then fell to Novak, 178-139. In the finals, Novak took down No. 1 seed E.J. Tackett, 179-155.
