Introduction to the Josh Hyde Bowling PBA Majors Media Guide

Hello from Josh Hyde Bowling.

In 2012-2013, I designed a complete PBA Media Guide. This project was completed over the course of several months. While the earlier guide focused on the entire PBA, this guide mainly addresses the Majors on the PBA Tour. Additionally, I designed a ranking system that determines who the best bowlers are in the Majors. Several charts in this guide give detailed information on who the best bowlers were in each of the Majors. History of PBA Major moments are also highlighted.

Bowling fans, here is a guide that provides you with abundant information about the PBA Majors.

Masters and All-Stars Are Awarded Titles for Past PBA Players

On the 12th of May of 2008, the PBA announced that the previous USBC Masters and the BPAA All-Stars were going to be recognized as PBA Titles. This enabled great bowlers like Dick Weber and Earl Anthony to receive six more titles between the both of them. Prior to 1970, the U.S. Open was called the BPAA All-Star. The great Dick Weber won four of them. Don Carter also won four of them as well. Mike Aulby won three USBC Masters Titles which gave Mike Aulby three more titles. This change gave Earl Anthony 43 titles instead of 41. This also gave Anthony the most Major Titles with 10 Majors instead of 8. Don Carter had six Major Titles. Norm Duke is now up to seven Major Titles with his 1993 USBC Masters Title.

The USBC Masters is awarded to PBA members from 1959 onwards as well as the BPAA All-Star Tournament, with these being the first two Majors of the PBA.

The Masters and the All-Star Tournaments were definitely the first Majors of professional bowling. This was a great proposition that the PBA made to award titles to the Masters winners and the BPAA All-Star Tournament Winners.

This enabled bowlers like Dick Weber, Harry Smith, and Bob Strampe to be awarded titles on the PBA Tour. The All-Star was a 100-game event. If a player didn't deserve a PBA Tour Title for winning one of the first bowling championships then I don't know what winning a Major is. In my opinion, this was one of the best decisions that the PBA decided to do.

Historical Moments in the PBA Majors

Don Carter wins inaugural PBA National Championship.

At the 1960 PBA National Championship Don Carter won by 17 pins over Ronnie Gaudron. It was a success. Carter averaged ten pins higher over other top big names such as Harry Smith and Dick Weber. He had won twenty games and only lost nine games and tied one game. He averaged 237 to claim the 1960 PBA National Championship held at Imperial Lanes in Memphis, Tennessee. The Tournament was conducted in four days with Carter taking home $5,600.00 for his efforts out of 192 bowlers. This would amount to 1 out of every 4 bowlers cashing. The PBA National Championship was a 30 game tournament. He would need to win the ABC/USBC Masters to claim every major. Which he would go on later to do that year.

First Perfect Game on Television & the infamous 299

The PBA reached a milestone during the televised Firestone Tournament of Champions on April 1st, 1967, when Jack Biondolillo tried to become the first bowler to bowl a 300 on TV. The match was against Glen Carlson who could only muster up a 216. Jack started the match, so he was going to be the last one to finish the match. He had nine consecutive strikes. The first ball in the tenth went right to the pocket. It took them straight back for a flush strike. The next ball got a little bit lucky as it tripped the four pin. On the final ball he got it a little bit inside; however, he was still able to strike for the first 300 on national television. What's funny is that he averaged 180 for his next two games. He earned $10,000 for bowling the first 300 on national television.

Just three years later Don Johnson had another chance to make PBA history. Both Don and Dick Ritger were striking quite nicely. However, Don was not going to stop striking while Ritger finished strong with a 268 game. All that Don had to do was get a good mark to win the title. He stepped up in the tenth and threw a strike. He got the eleventh one but failed on the last ball by leaving a ten pin. It would be a record that would hold up for 23 years. Had Johnson got the last one in the tenth, he would have earned a $10,000 bonus for bowling a perfect game on television.

Anthony Becomes First Millionaire on Tour

In the 1982 PBA National Championship, the PBA had a chance to have history made. If Earl Anthony won his fifth PBA National Championship, he would become the first player to surpass $1 million in career earnings.

Anthony would have his hands full with Charlie Tapp to do so. Tapp had won three games and was trying to win his first career major. Tapp had averaged 215 for his previous games heading into the championship match.

Anthony was the superstar of the PBA Tour at this time. Anthony needed a strike to shut out Tapp in the tenth frame. Just as a great bowler does, he prevailed. Earlier in the season, Anthony had a couple third place finishes, a few cashes, and a win on the season.

He bowled a 233 to become the first millionaire in PBA history. This was an astonishing achievement for a professional bowler to make because no one in sports was making seven figures. At the time, it was not only a PBA feat, but a great sports moment.

Durbin Wins Third Tournament of Champions

Mike Durbin became the first bowler to win three Tournament of Champion titles in PBA history in 1984, the same week he was inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame! In the tournament, his first opponent was Steve Cook. Cook had built an early 500 pin lead going into the last two rounds of match play. However, after battling an illness, he barely hung on to make the show, qualifying in fifth. Ironically, this was the closest match Durbin would have, as he only beat Cook by 17 pins, 205-188. In the next match, he faced George Pappas, who fell easily to Durbin 255-191.

In the semi-final, Durbin faced Joe Salvenini. Durbin kept on striking, winning 244-198. In match play, Aulby had built a 115-pin lead over second place, looking to claim the title. Durbin had other ideas, as Aulby struggled early, opening four of the first five frames. This gave Durbin all the chance he needed to secure his third Tournament of Champions title, as he won 246-163. This added to his 1972 and 1982 titles. No other bowler had or has since won the Tournament of Champions and been inducted into the Hall of Fame in the same week.

Petraglia Perfect Game

In the 1994 PBA World/National Championship a couple things happened during that show. One, it was the first time two brothers were in the championship match going for a PBA Major Title. The brothers were David and Dale Traber. The second thing that happened was that Johnny Petraglia would shoot a perfect game on National Television. He did it against Walter Ray Williams, Jr. Every shot was in the pocket, and Johnny would be the only bowler to shoot a 200 game on the show. In the first game, Petraglia scored 237 while defeating Eric Forkel's score of 181.

Petraglia earned $100,000 for throwing a perfect game. When they interviewed him afterward, he said that his kids do not have to worry about going to college because that money would go toward his childrens' education. Johnny had the best line of the day. If he would have beat Dale Traber in the next game, he would have won his second PBA National/World Championship and his 15th career PBA tour title.

7,200 Fans Watch the US Open

The year was 1995. It was bowling's toughest test: the U.S. Open. Before the championship round show, all the major bowling manufactures were there showcasing their new products. There were 7200 people at this show in Detroit, Michigan. Dave Husted was trying to win his 2nd U.S. Open Title. What a venue for the 1995 BPAA U.S. Open! Paul Kohler had strung 15 strikes in a row from the 3rd frame in the semi final game to the fifth frame of the championship match. He bowled a 278 in the semi final against Steve Hoskins.

It looked like Dave Husted was going to have his hands full. He already had a hurt back, so it wasn't looking good for him. He managed to bowl a 266 over Paul Kohler's 245, so Husted ended up winning his 2nd U.S. Open Title. It was a great championship game. It was a high scoring affair for a major bowling tournament. It was a great thrill being there and watching the greatest bowl the toughest tournament of the year.

Aulby Fourth to Win Triple Crown and First to Win Grand Slam

Mike Aulby always did great at the Tournament of Champions except when it came time to seal the deal in the Championship round, he could not get the job done. He was the tournament leader a couple of times in the mid-80s and had a low game in the Championship match.

In 1995, it was the inaugural Brunswick World Tournament of Champions. The original Firestone Tournament of Champions had only PBA tournament winners. For the previous 30 years, the tournament had been held at Riveria Lanes in Akron, OH. This was the first year at Brunswick Deer Park Lanes in Lake Zurich, IL. Brunswick decided to let some international players in the tournament.

Bowling fans may say that the Tournament of Champions should only have PBA titlists participate. However, there only five international players in the Tournament of Champions itself. The field was mainly made up of PBA champions (92%). Indeed, it was still the Tournament of Champions.

In his quest to become the fourth bowler to win the Triple Crown and the first bowler to complete the Grand Slam, Mike Aulby looks pretty solid as he defeated Patrick Healey 265-177 in the Semifinals. He was striking. It looked like Bob Spaulding was going to have his hands full in the Championship match. However, Spaulding was looking pretty good throughout the entire match. This created difficulty for Aulby. In the ninth frame, Spaulding left a 7-10 split giving Aulby an advantage to win—his third leg of the Triple Crown and the fourth of the Grand Slam. Spaulding forced Aulby to double in the 10th and get four pins to win. Aulby defeated Spaulding 237-232. Just like every great champion, Aulby came through in the end.

This was Aulby's 23rd PBA Tour title and his fifth major tournament. With this win, he joined Billy Hardwick, Johnny Petraglia, and Pete Weber as the only other Triple Crown bowlers.

Aulby Gets Super Slam and Wins Third Masters

The Super Slam consists of the PBA World Championship, Tournament of Champions, U.S. Open, USBC Masters and the PBA Players Championship which was known as the (Touring Players Championship). If Norm Duke wins the PBA Players Championship. He will join Mike Aulby as the only two bowlers who have completed the Super Slam. Mike Aulby is the only player to accomplish this feat. He has won every Major on the PBA Tour that there is to win. To do this is extremely rare. To be the one bowler that has accomplished this title defines him as one of the best players.

In the 1996 Touring Player Championship, Mike Aulby had to double in the 10th to win and he did. He became the only bowler to win every Major tournament that a bowler could win. This made him one of the greatest bowlers in the history of the PBA. Winning one Major is a hard task for a pro bowler. Winning all five Majors proves a great level of skill. The Major Tournaments are difficult tournaments to win because of the demanding lane conditions.

Mike Aulby won his 3rd Masters on May 9, 1998. He was going to have his hands full as Parker Bohn III bowled a 300 in the semi-finals. In the semi-finals, Parker Bohn III (300) defeated Mike Mullen (246) and Chris Sand (191). All three players started out strong, except Bohn could not stop striking.

While it looked like Bohn had it under control, he started out in the championship game with two opens back to back. This gave Aulby an early advantage; and just like a great champion, he started off with a double in the championship game. However, Aulby ran into transition during the middle of the championship game. In the 8th frame, he left the 6/7 split, but then he recovered by making it. This gave him a good lead going into the 10th frame. He was then able to seal the deal by shutting out Bohn with the score of 224-192. This gave Aulby his 3rd Masters title and his 26th PBA Tour title.

It looked like Bohn had the advantage when he entered the championship game of the 1998 ABC Master's. He had just bowled a 300, and his line to the pocket was a great line. However, Mike Aulby being Mike Aulby had something to say about that. Time and time again, I saw Aulby strike when he needed to win a title, and I knew Bohn was going to have his hands full.

Couch becomes First Player to Win Three Consecutive TOC's

The PBA did not have a Tournament of Champions in the year 2001. Jason Couch had won the previous two tournaments. He bowled great all week it was a different format. This time it was completely match play. Before completion started, the players drew to discover the opening matchup. The Round of 32, 16, and 8 would all be the best of five games. Back in 2000, Ryan Shaffer lost to Couch who successfully defended his 1999 title. They both made the championship round in 2002. It was another chance for Shaffer to get revenge at this tournament against Couch. If they could win their opening game, except this time the scores were much higher. Back in 2000, the scores were low. Couch only had a 212 against Robert Smith in the Semi-final. Shaffer on the other hand had a 234 against Patrick Healy Jr. Things were looking good for Shaffer as Couch could not get anything going in his semifinal. Fortunately, Couch made a move and started to strike. Shaffer to struggle to hit the pocket. Couch started with the front five in the championship game. This gave him an opportunity to take advantage and claim his third consecutive ToC title. The final score was 266-224.

Williams, Jr. Ties Anthony's Titles Record

The PBA world championship has been a history maker in years past. There have been two significant things in the PBA world championship besides Walter Ray tying Earl Anthony's record of 41 titles. The first is Earl Anthony winning the PBA National Championship to go over the one million dollar mark in career earnings, also Pete Weber winning the PBA world championship to become the third player to win the Triple Crown. All three of these, I believe, were very important moments in history.

In 2006 PBA history repeated itself for a third time with Walter Ray and Pete Weber bowling for the championship, but even more so, because it was the best of the best. When Pete Weber made the 4-7-9 split, I thought, "GAME ON!" I knew it was going to be close.

The match between Walter Ray and Pete Weber was like watching Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer at Augusta going for their eighth green jacket between the both of them. This is why, of all the tournaments I have been to, this one has been the top of everything. I will never forget the 2006 PBA World Championship.

The Greatest Comeback at the TOC

In 2008, the greatest comeback game was about to happen. In the TOC. Chris Barnes was leading over Michael Haugen Jr. by 52 pins with 5 frames to go. Barnes started off with a turkey following by a spare and then doubled. Bowling fans thought it was certain that he would win his second TOC. However, Michael had something to say about that. Michael started off slow with a couple early splits in the game. In the second frame, he left the 4,6,7 got the count by picking up the 4 and the 7. He went spare strike after that. Then last, another split 4,7,10. He got the 4 and 7, getting the count. From the 7 frame on, he started striking. Barnes went spare, spare and missed the 10 pin in the 9 frame. This gave Michael a little breathing room. As he posted a 215. Barnes needed to step up and fill 20 in the 10 frame. However, Barnes could only fill 19 giving Haugen the title. It was the greatest comeback in the history of the TOC. The final score was 215-214. This was Michael's first appearance in the TOC. It was his second career PBA third title. It was an amazing feat being down 52 pins at the half way point of the match.

Duke Wins Three Major Titles in-a-Row

During the 07-08 PBA Tour season, Norm Duke was having his worst season ever. He was showing no progress. This ended at the 2008 PBA World Championship. Just when you thought Duke was done with his career, he made his first show at the 2008 PBA World Championship. He had to beat Ryan Shafer for the title, and he did so. In his first semi game, he beat the great Walter Ray Williams, Jr.

Beating the great Walter Ray Williams, Jr. is not an easy thing to do because Walter Ray has three World Championship titles. Norm was going to have his hands full in his first semi-final match. He managed to overcome Walter Ray by beating him 208-180. Walter was struggling that day because he left some splits and couldn't get striking. Duke was able to stay clean and hit the pocket during his first semi-final match. The lanes were hard to score on. During the championship match, Ryan Shafer couldn't get lined up and had a hard time finding the pocket. However, Duke was staying clean and was doing what the best bowlers do to win major championships.

Duke had never won the U.S. Open in his career. This is the only major title that eluded him. In the 2008 U.S. Open, he had to climb the ladder to become the fifth player to win the Triple Crown and the second player to win the Grand Slam. He did so by averaging above 242 in his quest to win the U.S Open title. In the final frame, he made the bucket to win the title. He did so like every great champion does. He beat two major champions, Doug Kent and Mika Koivuniemi.

Going in to the 08-09 season, the PBA Tour had its first major as the PBA World Championship. Duke was going to have his hands full as all four finalists were major champions. The four finalists on the show were Norm Duke, Chris Barnes, Steve Jaros, and Sean Rash. Sean Rash had never lost a game on television. Chris Barnes was trying to become the sixth player to win the Triple Crown. The championship match was a history-making match because if Duke would have won, he would have been the only player to win three major titles in a row. If Barnes would have won, he would have become the sixth player to win the Triple Crown. Duke ended up crushing Barnes with a 259 over Barnes 189. This made Duke become the first bowler to win three major titles in-a-row.

From Unemployment to PBA Champion

Back in 2009, Tom Smallwood lost his job at GM, and he had an ambition of being a pro bowler. He was from Saginaw, Michigan. The first World Series of Bowling was coming up, and it was near his hometown. What a great opportunity for him to pursue his dream, plus it was a chance to earn money for something he enjoyed doing. Smallwood had a golden opportunity to make a great deal of money in a short amount of time.

The WSOB included the Motor City Open, five Animal Patterns Championships, and the PBA World Championship. Smallwood averaged 228 in the first round of qualifying. In the second round of qualifying, he did not have as good of a block. However, he still averaged 219. In the third round, Smallwood shot a 1400 for 6 games. This was making a statement—that he was ready to bowl on the PBA Tour.

In the Cashers Round, he stumbled a bit but was able to hang on making the cut to the Top 40. He was the 11th qualifier but unable to get a 2-round bye for the early rounds of Match Play. In Match Play, Tom was able to dominate as he only had one match go to 6 games in the best of 7. In the round of 32, he did not bowl very well, but his opponent was also struggling. He was able to win his first match. The next round (16) saw Smallwood start out strong with a 260 game. He struggled in the middle of the match. In game 5, his opponent shot a blistering 279. In the deciding game 6, Smallwood rolled a 207 taming his opponent who shot a 200. In the Super 16 round, Tom ousted Chris Barnes four games to one. In the round of 8, he beat D'Entremont 4-2. Both bowlers were having a hard time of it. Smallwood was able to win his match to advance to the Championship round.

The Championship round saw Smallwood take on Bill O'Neill. Smallwood was able to advance with only a 211, while O'Neill could only muster a 159. In the Championship game, it was a little higher scoring. Both players started out strong. Tom had an open frame late in the game, except Malott could not capitalize. Tom was able to come back and strike. This game him his first career PBA Tour title.

Kulick wins Tournament of Champions

In September of 2009, Kelly Kulick won the PBA Women's World Championship by defeating Shannon Pluhowsky 219-204. The win gave her spot into the Tournament of Champions. She had nothing to lose and everything to gain. Five season prior Liz Johnson became the first woman to make a championship round in a PBA Tournament. Prior to Kelly winning at the PBA Women's World Championship she became the first woman to get an exemption on the PBA Tour at the 2006 Tour Trials. She had the played on the PBA Tour before. She was going to have her hands full at the PBA's premier event the Tournament of Champions.

In the first round Kelly started with a 150 game but then she recovered with a 270 in game 2. She would end shooting a 130 over for 8 games. She ended on a good note. The next round she had no games under 200 with high games of 277 and 257. She would have a 290 block for her round. The last round of qualifying she would continue to stay strong. The last round of qualifying she stayed consistent and put herself in the cut to advance in match play. In match play she hung on to the make the show. The last round of match play she started out slow but then made a ball switch and she began to strike. She bowled a 267 in the position round.

This propelled her to the championship round. For the show she would qualify 2nd. She was two wins away from winning her first title and on top of that she would be the first women to win a PBA Tour title. In the first match she met Mika Koivuniemi and struck out for the win beating him by 4 pins. In the Championship match she faced Chris Barnes. She encountered a pitfall when she left a 7-10 split in the 5th frame, but then she came back stronger by striking out for the win. Barnes could not get anything going. She became the first woman in PBA History to win a PBA title.

Vintage Tournament of Champions

In 2011, The PBA announced that the Tournament of Champions was going to have a $1,000,000 purse with a $250,000 first prize. The tournament leader was guaranteed $100,000. ABC scheduled the tournament in the old time slot at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. It was like going back in time to the golden days of the PBA. In prior Tournaments, bowlers would have to win a PBA National. In this Tournament, they invited any PBA Regional, PBA50, and PBA50 Regional Tour Titlist. The PBA membership was a little bit disappointed when they invited

Regional Titlists. They felt it should be opened past PBA National Tour champions. To compensate, this Tournament did not have everyone cashing. Some of the prestige was missing because of these factors. In addition, the Tournament had preliminary elimination rounds in order to narrow the field to the top 53. Former PBA Titlists were shoeing it up to see if they could have a shot at the $250,000. This attracted bowlers like Warren Nelson, Bryan Alpert, Jim Murtishaw, Palmer Fallgren, Tom Milton, and Mike Miller. At one time, these bowlers were contenders on the PBA Tour. The Tournament did stick with tradition of paying out to 53 places, with the last check at $2,500. If a bowler made Match Play, they would receive at least $8,000. Finally, if a bowler made the step ladder finals, they were guaranteed $40,000. The size of total prize fund made it an exciting tournament.

The final four who made the Championship Round were Tom Smallwood, Tom Daughterty, Andres Gomez, and Mika Koivuniemi. Only two finalist previously won a PBA Tour title. For a Tournament of Champions, it was one of the weakest championship round in ToC History. Vintage bowling fans who had not followed the PBA since the ABC days had expectation of big stars in the championship round. What made this tournament memorable was the semi-final match between Mika Koivuniemi and Tom Daughterty. In the match, Mika was the man on fire, but Tom was the complete opposite with 7 splits and 8 open frames. He only had two strikes for two clean frames. Mika had the match won by the fourth frame and had nothing but strikes until the last ball when he left the 10-pin. The final 299-100 was the largest margin of victory on the PBA Tour. Mika would go on to win his third Major beating Tom Smallwood 269-207 in the final.

Weber Wins Fifth US Open,

The 2012 US Open was a historic event with Pete Weber surpassing his father. His father won four BPAA All-Star tournaments, which is known as the US Open today.

Weber bowled three 255+ games in the last round of match play. This is a very hard task to do because of demanding lane conditions. Overall, he shot +188 in the last round of match play and averaged 223.5. This enabled him to get in the top four for the stepladder finals. However, he would have to climb up from the fourth position.

The next day, on his way to his fifth US Open title, Weber missed a ten pin, but was able to maintain pace and keep the pressure on and move on.

In the championship match, Weber still had some work to do, needing to strike his last ball. Weber did, and won his 35th PBA Tour title, his ninth major title, and his fifth US Open title.

Weber Wins 10th Major, Becomes First Bowler to Complete Triple Crown Twice

Pete Weber lead the 2013 Tournament of Champions going into the televised final.

About a year earlier, he won his fifth U.S. Open and his ninth career major title. In his fifth U.S. Open, he had to strike on the final ball in order to win his fifth U.S. Open. In this TOC, he would have to battle through the defending champion and a past champion. Indeed, he was going to have his hands full. On top of that, he was trying to get the record for longest time between TOC Titles.

During the qualifying and match play of the tournament, Weber had solid performance as he only had one game under 200. During the whole tournament, he only had two games under 200. He even had a perfect game in the second round of qualifying. He averaged 236.44 during the course of the tournament.

As it turned out, he was bowling Jason Belmonte for the title when bowling fans thought that Belmonte had a good ball reaction, he ran into transition while bowling Weber. Weber was able to put on a bowling clinic by striking and making his spares.

Weber was thus able to claim his tenth career Major and his second completion of the Triple Crown. This put Weber into one of the greatest bowlers of all time. This win ties him with Earl Anthony by winning ten career Major Titles.

Belmonte Third Masters and Second player
To Defend his ToC Title

In 2014, Jason Belmonte became the second player to successfully defend his USBC Masters title. A year later, he would be seeking a third USBC Masters Title joining Mike Aulby as being the only players to win USBC Masters titles. He would also join Jason Couch and Earl

Anthony for three-peating a major title. He would lose the top seed in the preliminary match to A.J. Johnson. This would give him the second seed position along the way. Pete Weber was looking for his first Masters. However, Belmonte was determined to win his third consecutive Masters. Weber was looking really strong as he defeated his first two opponents -Martin Larsen and Mike Devaney. It looked like Weber was going to win, but Weber got the first strike and the second ball he left a ringing ten pin. Belmonte made Weber double in the tenth and get count to advance to the championship game 232 to 210 which enabled Belmonte to advance to the championship match. The match was close between A.J. Johnson and Belmonte at the beginning. However, toward the end of the game, Johnson got a couple open frames and this enabled Belmonte to make history by becoming the first bowler to three-peat the Masters 202 to 157.

A week later, Belmonte would once again have a chance at PBA history. Sean Rash became the first player in PBA history to throw two perfect games on national television. Rhino Page had led the tournament wire-to-wire. Belmonte was going to have his hands full. He was able to find the pocket and strike. Rash could not keep on striking as Belmonte was able to find the pocket by shooting a 235 game. Rash could only muster a 203 game by struggling to allow Belmonte to advance to the championship game. Once again in the championship game, Rhino Page led the entire tournament from Round 1 to the final round of match play. Rhino was looking to make history as George Pappas did. Back in 1979, Pappas led the tournament from the beginning to the end. Belmonte wanted to add his name to the history books by adding a second TOC title to his resume'. He would join Jason Couch in becoming the second bowler to defend his TOC title. Belmonte struck on seven out of eight shots. Page had a chance by doubling but could not take advantage. This gave Belmonte his 12th career tour title and his fifth major to add on his accomplishments. He would join Jason Couch as becoming the second player in PBA history to successfully defend his TOC title.

Oldest Youngest Player to win a Major

In 1996, Mike Aulby had a chance to make USBC History by becoming the third player to win back-to-back Masters Titles. As the defending champion, he received an automatic seed in the match play part of the tournament. Aulby bowled great during the match play portion of the tournament and it looked like the tournament belonged to him. However Ernie Schlegel had easier road to final and took the tournament leader position for the championship round finals. Early on it looked like Aulby was going to take his third Frank Baker Masters trophy. Ernie missed a single pin spare early in the game, but he started to strike as Aulby ran into transition problems. Ernie became the oldest player to win a Major.

Twenty years later in 2016 in the USBC Masters, Anthony Simonsen would become the youngest player to win a major. He went into match qualified in fifth place and was perform at the top of his game. He had a low scoring against Bill O'Neill, but other than that match he was consistent during the match play and ended in the top seed of championship round. In the championship match, it was a rematch of the top seed from the previous day. He would repeat his win over Dan MacLelland and became the youngest player in PBA history to win a Major.

2016 Firelake Tournament of Champions

At the 2016 Tournament of Champions made history as the youngest bowler to win the tournament, 2015 Harry Golden Rookie of the Year Jesper Svensson defeated Mitch Beasley 225 to 177, becoming the ninth player in his first appearance to take home the title at the TOC. “Winning a major is one of the biggest achievements you can have in bowling, so I’m pretty much out of words” stated Svensson after his win, which was seen by nearly 1 million viewers on ESPN. Two time defending champion Jason Belmonte who was hoping to become the second player to three peat was struck down by Tom Daugherty, in the second game of the stepladder finals. The score was Daugherty’s 220 to Belmonte’ 169. In the opening match former rookie of the year E.J. Tackett was defeated by Daugherty in a close match 231 to 221. E.J Tackett had the match well in hand but only got a low count on his fill ball. Which gave Daugherty a chance to double in the tenth to win the match and prevail over Tackett. Daugherty missed a couple of 3-10 baby splits but began striking late in the game. In the semi-finals he would take on another former Rookie of the Year in Jesper Svensson. This time had Jesper had his striking shoes on defeating Daugherty 245 to 206.

The scores were quite a bit lower than 2015 as it would only take a score of + 276 by Chris Loschetter to make the first cut. After the first 16 games of qualifying the leader was at +503 by Tom Smallwood. In the casher’s round Norm Duke would be the number but he withdrew due to a neck injury. A.J. Johnson would replace Duke. The final number was a score of + 384 by Johnson. After 24 games of qualifying the leader was Jesper Svensson with a score of +772. The first round of match play saw Jesper Svensson maintaining his lead by having a 7-1 record. Pete Weber withdrew after one round of match play due to an hip injury. Jason Sterner would replace Weber due to his injury. Jesper Svensson kept on maintaining his lead however he only won two matches during second round of match play. Mitch Beasley was coming on strong as he only lost three games during the first two rounds of the match play. In the final round of match play Mitch Beasley would take over the lead as he would win seven more games of match play. Jason Belmonte would have his hope of becoming the second player to three peat the tournament by taking the third position. Tom Daugherty would falter a little bit but would stay on the championship round. E.J Tackett would lose one position as well but still would be in the championship round. Anthony Simonsen and Don Barrett would be the only bowlers to throw perfect games in the match play portion of the tournament. The top 5 would consist of two Rookies of the Year and a three-peat Player of the Year, also a former regional Player of the Year. It was a strong top five at this year’s Tournament of Champions.

Dan MacLelland had a strong streak and averaged 231 through his path in the winner's bracket.

2016 Barbasol PBA Players Championship

The 2016 Barbasol PBA Players Championship saw another first time major title winner Graham Fach defeat 2015 U.S. Open Champion Ryan Ciminelli 279 to 244. He also became the first Canadian to win a PBA Tour Title, also making the Top Five was PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke. Duke was looking to join Mike Aulby as only bowler to complete the Super Slam by winning the tournament. However he was defeated in the first match by Harry Golden Rookie of the Year Jesper Svensson 274– 258. Svensson struggled to muster up a 206 game against Australia’s Sam Cooley who was striking at a 246. In the semi-finals featured a newcomer to the PBA Tour in Graham Fach. Graham’s first appearance showed little to no nerves on the PBA Tour to defeat Sam Cooley 247 to 244 in a close match. Graham’s reaction to his win was the following ‘It’s a great feeling to win against players of this caliber’.

In the preliminary rounds of the tournament there were a number of 300’s bowled. A few bowlers bowled more than one 300 in the tournament. Ryan Cinemmelli bowled two 300’s one of which was the position round game of match play. This would vault him into the lead going into the championship round. He was looking for his second major title of his career. Sam Cooley would also bowl two 300’s in the tournament. Graham Fach was near the top throughout the course of the tournament . PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber was looking for his second PBA player’s championship. However he had to withdraw before match play because of an injury. He was looking to surpass Earl Anthony with a total of eleven majors if he would win this tournament. Tom Smallwood would take his place in match play. It would take a score of + 434 by Anthony Simonsen and Jack Jurek to make the first cut. Graham Fach would be the 16 game leader with a score of +774. In the casher’s round Ronnie Sparks Jr would be the number to make round robin match play with a score of 706. While Fach was still maintaining his lead of +1,043. Norm Duke, Parker Bohn III, and Walter Ray Williams Jr would be the three PBA Hall of Famers that would make match play. Norm Duke end up being the number to make the live championship round finals on ESPN. Norm also had an earlier perfect game in the Barbasol Players Championship. The tournament was a high scoring affair as there were a total of eleven perfect games in the tournament. It was also held at a PBA Hall of Famers bowling center Wayne Webb.

Lavoie Perfect to Win His First Title at the 2016 U.S Open

Francois Lavoie made PBA History as he became the second Canadian to win a major title at the 2016 U.S. Open. He did so by defeating Marshall Kent 228 to 194. Francois also made history by shooting the first 300 in the championship round at the U.S. Open against Sean Maldonado. Marshall Kent started off slow as he was in 92nd place in the first round. He stated that he had tried to win it on the very first day of qualifying. By the end of the casher's round, he went from nowhere to being the Tournament Leader. Martin Larsen was the qualifying leader for the first 24 games to with a score of +617. It took a score of +231 by Chris Via to advance to the Casher's Round. Other names that made the cut were Jason Belmonte, three time reigning Player of the Year; Walter Ray Williams Jr.; and PBA Hall of Famer Norm Duke. Five time U.S. Open Champion Pete Weber could not bowl due to an injury.

In the Casher's Round, it would take a score of +486 by former Rookie of the Year Brad Angelo. Missing out was 2013 U.S. Open Champion Wes Malott. Kent would start dominating the tournament in the cashier's round when he would shoot a score of +334 for his final round of qualifying. Marshall just kept on striking as he would only lose four games in the 24 game Round Robin. Francois and Andres Gomez would have the only perfect games through qualifying. However, that would change as Angelo and Simonsen would add to the total for the perfect games in the 2016 U.S Open. Francois become the only player to shoot a perfect game in the championship round. This propelled him for consideration for the 2016 Harry Golden Rookie of the Year candidate. He joins a select few of bowlers whose first win was the U.S. Open title. He was an All-American at Wichita State in 2012. Pepsi gave him a $10,000.00 bonus for shooting a 300 in the Championship Round.

Tackett's Revenge at the PBA World Championship

E.J. Tackett won his fourth career PBA Tour Title and his first career major at the 2016 PBA World Championship as he defeated Tom Smallwood 246 to 180. E.J. had a strong start by applying the pressure to Tom. In the middle of the game, he left a 2-8-10 combo, however Tom could not capitalize on E.J.'s mistake. Tackett was able to come back strong and throw a couple of strikes to claim the title and $60,000.

At the 2016 PBA WSOB, there was 169 bowlers vying for the PBA World Championship title. There were a total of 23 international bowlers competing after the Cheetah, Scorpion, Chameleon, and Shark qualifying rounds. The top 25 percent qualifiers advanced to the cashier's round after all the animal patterns. These bowlers would come back to bowl six more games of qualifying before cutting to the top 24 round robin match play. After 32 games, E.J. Tackett was the leader with a score of + 942 while Markus Jansson would be the number to advance to the cashier's round with a score of + 492. Brandon Novak started out strong until the Shark pattern. During the first three patterns, Novak was dominating with averages between 225 and 244. He was not able to keep up his performance on the Shark pattern with only a 189 average. B.J. Moore had a chance to take the lead, but E.J. was able to mark more and took the lead after the Animal patterns. Some of the other bowlers who made the cut were Pete Weber, Jason Belmonte, Water Ray Williams Jr., Marshall Kent, Tommy Jones, and Chris Barnes. In the Cashier's round, E.J. Tackett secured his lead going into Match Play.

Pete Weber had a hip injury but he was able to contend all the way through Match Play. Jason Belmonte had a monstrous block during the last round of Match Play which included a perfect game. During the last round of Match Play, a good game was not sufficient. They needed an excellent game to get to the championship round. In the position round game, Weber had a chance to make the show, however Simonsen threw the front ten to secure fifth place and his third appearance in a Major Championship round this year.

During the first match in the Championship round, Smallwood and Simonsen had a close match that was only decided in the tenth frame. Smallwood needed only seven pins on his fill ball to secure the match, but he left the big four which gave Simonsen a chance to strike out and tie. He got the first one in the tenth, but failed to get the second one. The second match featured three time reigning Player of the Year, Jason Belmonte. In the foundation frame, Jason lost his chance at winning his seventh Major title with a 3-4-6-7 split which he failed to convert. Smallwood proceeded to face Dom Barrett in the semi-final. Dom bowled a good game, but Smallwood had the front eight and went on to the Championship match.

Major Tournament Ranking

Josh Hyde Bowling devised a system for all the Majors in each of the PBA seasons. In 1959, Eddie Elias had the first PBA tournament, won by Lou “Wrong Foot” Campi. Even though the ABC Masters (now known as the USBC Masters) and the BPAA All-Stars (now known as the U.S. Open) were not considered PBA titles, JHB ranked those tournaments as if they were. The ranking system was determined by top 10 money earners, Player of the Year, Rookie of the Year, Point Leader, High Average Award, and PBA Hall of Famer. The tournaments were ranked on a scale 0-100 in increments of 5. If Earl Anthony won the PBA National/World Championship and he might be the Player of the Year, that tournament may have a higher ranking than the USBC Masters. In 1981, Anthony became the first player to win a Major in the same year that he was inducted into the PBA Hall of the Fame.

For instance, in 1991, David Ozio made nearly every Major championship round. He would finally break through at the Tournament of Champions. Ozio would later become that season’s Player of the Year. There were a number of players who won multiple titles that year. Ozio was a dominant contender at the Majors. In the pages ahead, bowling fans and bowling writers can take a look at each Major and decide for themselves whether Josh Hyde Bowling was correct in it’s analysis. Let the debating begin!

2016 PBA Awards Recipients-Svensen, Tackett, Lavoie

In January of 2017, the PBA announced the George Young Memorial High Average award to Jesper Svensen. His average for the year was 226.07, nearly a pin and a half higher than his next closest competitor, 2013 High Average winner Jason Belmonte.

Svensen had also become the fastest and youngest bowler to win five PBA Tour titles. In fact, he was the youngest to win the 2016 Tournament of Champions.

In the early stages of the Player of the Year race, it looked like he was going to be the fifth player to earn the Chris Schenkel Player of the Year. Should he receive the Year honor, he would become the first player to win the Rookie and the Player of the Year back-to-back seasons.

He also was the third leading money leader in 2016 behind E.J. Tackett and Anthony Simonsen. Svensen has proven that he is a worthy contender on the PBA Tour.

In February 2017 the PBA announced the Chris Schenkel– Harry Golden Player and Rookie of the Year recipients E.J. Tackett won the Chris Schenkel PBA Player with being the only player to win four titles including the 2016 PBA World Championship. He was also the winner at the Bear Open in Detroit during the Fall Swing. “It’s absolutely amazing” exclaimed Tackett . Tackett becomes the fifth and second youngest player to earn Rookie of the Year and Player of the Year Awards. The youngest to win the Player of the Year Award was the great Billy Hardwick. He joins such great names as Mike Aulby, Chris Barnes, and Jason Belmonte. Who have earned Rookie and Player of the Year honors.

The Harry Golden Rookie of the Year went to Francois Lavoie who had the perfect game at the U.S Open during the Championship Round Finals to claim his first PBA Tour Title about a month later. He would beat the greatest of all time Walter Ray Williams Jr. to claim his second career title. He had the greatest Rookie of the Year Season in the History of the PBA. Even though Rhino Page had the highest earnings for the Rookie of the Year Francois Lavoie stepped it up a notch winning his first title as being the U.S. Open and he even added another title. Francois Lavoie was a graduate of the greatest bowling collegiate program in the Whichtia State.
